

ITS Resource Center Home

Web Support

Contact Information

Web Services
315-859-4WEB
webhelp@hamilton.edu

Before you fill out any of the support forms below, you may be able to find the answer to your question on our Web Publishing at Hamilton page.

If you need help, or if you have any questions, about Web development at Hamilton College, please select one of the support areas below...

The following forms are for assistance with Web Space, Web Accounts, and Web Development ONLY. If you need help with network passwords, Blackboard CourseInfo, hardware, or other issues please contact the Help Desk at x4181, helpdesk@hamilton.edu, or search the ITS Resource Center.

Technical Support and Problems / Bugs / Updates

Examples: Broken links, a bug/error in a Web application, change to content or form fields, unable to connect to a specific Web site at Hamilton.

- Technical/Bug Problem Report

Sign Up for Student Web Space

Student Web space is now available through SiteManager, the College's content management system. Please fill out an account request form to get started.

Account and Password Issues

Examples: Give someone access to one of your Web folders, request organization Web space, and other user account-related issues.

- Account/Password Request

Projects and New Features

Examples: Request to develop and new Web application or site, request to add a new feature to an existing Web application.

- New Project Request Form
- Feature Request Form (for an existing application/site)

General Questions

Examples: Comments, Suggestions, anything not covered above.

E-mail Web Services at webhelp@hamilton.edu

Last Updated: January 6, 2012