Interlibrary Loan Requests

Contact Information
ILL
askill@hamilton.edu

Hamilton students, faculty, and staff may borrow materials from other libraries that we either don't own or are currently checked out. Choose an option below, or ask a librarian if you need help.

Individuals may make requests by manually filling in the forms linked to below, or they can look for the "Find It" icon when searching databases to make requests using pre-populated forms.

Logon to ILLiad, Hamilton's new Interlibrary Loan platform, using your network username and password. The first time you logon to this new system, you will be asked to confirm your personal information. For more information on ILLiad, see our recent news article.

Hamilton faculty, students, and staff may use these libraries, but do not have borrowing privileges.

- Cornell University - 90 miles
- Syracuse University - 50 miles

ARTICLE REQUESTS

Retrieve or Request Articles with Find It

The Find It icon appears in most library databases. Click on it to:

- link to the full text of your article
- link to an ALEX record with the location of the print journal that includes your article
- link to an autofill form you can use to request a copy of your article from another library. Most articles arrive within 2-5 days

Retrieve or Request Articles with a Citation

- Use Citation Finder to help you retrieve your article or request it from another library
- Use Journals A to Z to see if our library owns the journal you want
- Fill out an online request form: Logon to ILLiad
