

ACC-CLASS K-12 Chinese Language Teachers Institute

Beijing, China: Summer 2012

Who: K-12 Chinese Language teacher (non-native speakers of Chinese)

Where: Beijing, China

When: Summer 2012

Fulbright scholarships available! (grant-renewal pending)

- Full tuition
- Lodging in China
- Cultural Activities
- Cultural Lectures
- Program-related travel in China (including air travel)
- International travel up to $1,300
- Meals during "Chinese Table"

Applications due March 1, 2012

To apply visit www.hamilton.edu/china

Program Objectives

- Refresh Chinese language skills
- Further develop skills in Chinese language instruction
- Advance knowledge about Chinese culture and education practice

Features

- Language courses
- Teaching workshops and practicals
- Teaching and cultural panels
- Teaching portfolio and final report
- Cultural activities

Eligibility

Participants must be U.S. citizens, nationals, or permanent residents and must be the following:

- A Chinese language K-12 teacher (in-and pre-service, including graduate students and seniors who are prospective teachers of Chinese)
- A non-native speaker of Chinese
- At or above ACTFL intermediate-mid Chinese language proficiency (HSK Level 5)
- Willing to comply with ACC Language Pledge by speaking only Chinese inside and outside the classroom

ACC Programs

Established in 1996, ACC is a consortium of six leading institutions of higher education in China. After many years of success with the Intensive Chinese Language and Culture Program in Beijing, ACC has grown to offer three distinct programs in China:

- ACC Intensive Chinese Language and Culture Program in Beijing
- ACC Summer Field Studies
- ACC-CLASS K-12 Summer Chinese Language Teachers Institute (Scholarship opportunities are available)