Chinese 430 Masterpieces of Chinese Literature.

Instructor: Wang, Zhuoyi

Reading and discussion of the masterpieces from Chinese literature from pre-Qin through the 1980s. Students will gain an in-depth understanding of some of the most representative classical and modern Chinese literary works. Taught in Chinese. Requirements include presentations, class discussions and a final paper. Prerequisite: any third year level course in Chinese or consent of instructor.

Course syllabus (in Chinese) is available at https://blackboard.hamilton.edu/courses/1/CHNSE_430_01_FA2008/content/_168183_1/Chinese430.html

(This is the syllabus used for Fall semester of 2008. For reference only. Log in with your BlackBoard user name and password to view)