OVERVIEW OF NEW STUDENT ORIENTATION
For Orientation Leader Candidates
2004

New Student Orientation assists new students in planning and preparing for their first year at Hamilton College by making the transition into the campus community smooth and successful.

WHAT DO NEW STUDENTS DO AT ORIENTATION?

• Meet with faculty advisors.
• Participate in educational programs.
• Experience the residence hall environment.
• Explore a diverse selection of student life opportunities.
• Become familiar with the physical aspects of the campus.
• Interact with a variety of students, faculty, and staff.
• Become connected to the people, programs, and services of Hamilton College.

WHAT IS EXPECTED OF ORIENTATION LEADERS?

• To attend all required training sessions.
• To adhere to College policies and procedures for campus living at all times.
• To serve as a positive role model and as an ambassador of Hamilton College at all times.
• To accept and carry out all duties and responsibilities as assigned by the Director of Student Activities and the Orientation Coordinator staff.
