

Hamilton

Researching a Career

Use resources in the Career Center Library and/or online to explore the career(s) you are interested in:

Identify the industry of interest: _____

Summarize the main purpose or focus of the industry:

Select a specific job title within this industry that you may be interested in:

What are the overall responsibilities and day-to-day tasks?

What level of education or training is necessary?

What skills and/or abilities are needed for this job?

What personality traits are necessary to be successful in this job?

What is the typical salary range? Are there other benefits associated with this job?

What is the typical career path? Can I start at this position or do I advance up to it? Where do I go next?

What is the employment outlook? Is the field expected to grow in the coming years?

What are some lifestyle factors associated with this position? (Long hours, travel, etc.)

Are you still interested in pursuing this line of work? Did the results of your research match your personal goals and/or aptitudes?

Great Job! You are off to an excellent start.

Make an appointment at the Career Center to discuss your career interests with a counselor.