Arcadia Course Offerings for Hamilton January Admits

Fall 2017

- Students will enroll in a total of 16 semester hours which equal 4 courses.
- Students must earn a B- or better in each course to earn a total of 4 units of Hamilton credit.
- QSR – Quantitative & Symbolic Reasoning courses are a requirement for graduation and should be fulfilled by their second year.
- If you haven’t already, please have your AP scores sent to the Registrar Office at Hamilton.

Required Course:

Showcasing the Nation (LONS HSSN 112)

This course will count as one of the three writing-intensive courses required for graduation. Students are strongly encouraged to enroll in a second writing-intensive course sometime in their first 2 semesters at Hamilton.

Arcadia Courses:

Students choose 2 or 3.

Contemporary Photography Practice (LONS ARDP 290)

This course will transfer as general credit. Students interested in majoring/minoring in Art should consult with the Chair of the Art department before spring registration in November.

Art and Architecture (LONS ARUS 282)

This course will transfer as an Art History elective, only.

London: City of Art (LONS ARLC 103)

This course will transfer as a 100-level Art History course. It may count towards an Art History major or minor. Students interesting in majoring/minoring should register for any 200-level Art History course.

Intro to British Media: History, Culture, and Public Policy (LONS MSHP 142)
This course will transfer as general credit. Students interesting in minoring in Communication should take Comm 101 in the spring term. There is no Communication major.

Creative Writing – The Art of Fiction (LONS ENCW 210)

This course may transfer as one of the following: 1) a prerequisite for CRWR 215 or 2) a creative practice course for LIT majors or 3) as an elective in CRWR. Students interested in majoring in Creative Writing should take CRWR 215 in the spring or following fall term. This course may not count towards the department’s AP credit policy.

The London Novel (LONS LIUK 120)

This course will transfer as a 100-level LIT course. Students planning on majoring/minoring in Literature could take any 100/200 level course that has a prerequisite of a LIT course. Students may not take CRWR 215 after taking either of these courses. This course may not count towards the department’s AP credit policy.

Introduction to Shakespeare in Text and Performance (LONS DTS 180)

Students may take this course only if they have received a 4 or 5 on an AP English Literature exam. It will transfer to Hamilton as a 200 level literature course. This course may not count towards the department’s AP credit policy.

Introduction to Microeconomics: Great Britain and Europe (LONS ECON 109)

This course is equivalent to Econ 101. Students who take this course may continue with Econ 102. Both Econ 101 and 102 are required for an Econ major/minor. Students with an AP 5 in Micro should not take this course and may go directly into Econ 102 in the spring. Currently, this is the only course offered which will fulfill the QSR requirement. Students may take other QSR courses during the spring semester.

Environment, Communities and the Arts (LONS AREC 280)

This course will transfer as a 200-level Humanities track in the Environmental Studies major. If a student is not majoring in ENVST, it will transfer as a general elective.

Intro to British Politics (LONS PSUK 130)

This course will transfer as a 200 level Government course. Students majoring in Government will be able to use this course towards the International Relations/Comparative Politics requirement. Students interested in majoring/minoring in Government/Public Policy/World Politics (major only) should register for an intro course. This course will not count towards the Government AP credit policy.
Issues in British Imperialism: 1800 to present day (LONS HIEC 173)

This course will transfer as a general credit. Students interested in majoring/minoring in History should register for a 100 level, writing-intensive History course which is a requirement for both the major and minor.

Intro to Sociology (LONS SOSC 143)

This course will transfer as Soc 101, which may count as a prerequisite for several 200 level Sociology courses.

London Stage in Text and Performance (LONS DTPC 181)

This course will count as general credit. Students interested in majoring/minoring in Theatre should take Thetr 100.

Developmental Psychology (LONS PYDP 290)

Students may take this course only if they have received a 4 or 5 on the AP Psychology exam. It will transfer to Hamilton as Psych 350 and students may not take Psych 350 once at Hamilton.

The Making of Global London: Migration and Identity (LONS SOGL 212)

This course will count as general credit.

University Courses:

If choosing 2 Arcadia courses, students may choose 1 course from this list.

Politics and Power in the 20th Century (City University, IP 1018)

OR

Myths and Mysteries in World Politics (City University, IP 1014)

These courses will count as 200 level electives for Government/World Politics. Students interested in majoring/minoring in Government or World Politics should take Govt. 114 in the spring.
(Psychology) History and Theory of Psychology (City University, PS 1004)

This course will transfer as a general credit. Students planning on majoring/minoring in Psychology should take Psych 101 in the spring, unless they have an AP Psych score of a 4 or 5. Students with an AP Psych score of 4 or 5 should register for a 200 level Psych course in the spring.