August 2019 New Faculty Orientation

Wednesday, August 21  (meet in Kirner Johnson commons)

1:30  Introductions

2 pm to 4 pm  Campus Orientation Activity

5:30 to 7:30 pm  Dinner at President Wippman’s House

Thursday, August 22 (all classroom sessions are in the Taylor Science Center G041)

8:00 – 8:45 AM  Continental Breakfast/Professional Photos by Nancy Ford—Taylor Science Center Atrium

8:45 AM – 9 AM  Welcome by Dean of Faculty Suzanne Keen

9:00 AM – 9:15 AM  Campus Orientation Activity Discussion

9:15 AM – 10:00 AM  Teaching at Hamilton (panel with Hamilton faculty)

10:00 – 10:15 AM  Break

10:15 – 10:45 AM  Student Stress: Counseling Center, Associate Dean of Students for Student Support Services & Associate Dean of Students for Multicultural Affairs and Accessibility Services

10:45 AM – 11:15 AM  Plagiarism, The Honor Code and Honor Court

11:15 AM – 11:45  Faculty Professional Development

11:45- 12:15 lunch (Taylor Science Center Atrium)

12:15 to 1:30  Walking tour of Root Glen, Wellin, Fitness Center

1:30 to 2:15  Title IX

2:15 to 2:45  Inclusion in the classroom (student panel)

2:45 – 3:00 pm  Break

3:00 pm – 4 pm  Q&A with mentors

4:15 pm – 5:00 pm  Wine and Cheese reception, Burke Library Commons (LITS, Academic Resource Centers)
Friday, August 23 (all classroom sessions on Friday are in Kirner-Johnson 101)

8:00 – 8:45 am continental breakfast  (Guest: registrar will be there to answer questions about accessing course and student information)

8:45 – 9:45 Syllabus workshop (key elements of a syllabus and course policies)

The event below is required for some new faculty, optional for others.

10:00 – 11 AM  Writing Center.  Special Session for Faculty Teaching Writing Intensive Courses (Required for new faculty teaching writing intensive courses)

After work drinks and snacks with the Dean, Wednesday, September 4, 5 pm

At the Dean’s house, 15 College Hill Road

This will also be an opportunity to connect with Krista Campbell and Jeff Ritchie, the liaisons for grants, fellowships, and foundations.

Emergency Preparedness Training

Sessions for new faculty are offered after classes start. Please choose one of the sessions below:

- Wednesday, September 4, 4:00-4:45 in KJ 127 (aka Red Pit)
- Thursday, Sept. 12, 12:00-12:45 in Science 3024

The emergency preparedness training is required for all new faculty.

Lunch with David Walden, Director of Counseling Center

Friday, September 6, 12:00 pm (location TBA)

This is highly recommended for all new faculty

Two events sponsored by the ALANA Caucus (highly recommended for faculty of color).

- August 28th 1:30-3pm in the Events Barn: Interactive Ice Cream Social for ALANA Caucus with students
- Faculty welcome reception September 13th at Terry Martinez's home, time TBD

The ALANA (Africana, Latino/a, Asian & Pacific Islander, Native American, and All other Underrepresented Races and Ethnicities) Caucus is a collective of Hamilton faculty and staff of color. The focus of the collective is to build and create a sense of community that nurtures ALANA faculty and staff, enhances their visibility, and gives voice to their interests and concerns. The group advocates for and supports the recruitment, retention, and advancement of ALANA identifying faculty, staff, and students.