

COVID-19 vaccines, tests and treatments

Optum Rx manages the pharmacy benefit for your plan. The Biden Administration announced plans to end the COVID-19 public health emergency (PHE) on May 11, 2023. The end of the PHE may mean changes to some of your out-of-pocket costs for:

- COVID-19 vaccines/booster
- Anti-viral treatments for FDA-approved and emergency use authorized (EUA) products such as Paxlovid™ (nirmatrelvir/ritonavir) and Lagevrio™ (molnupiravir)
- Over-the-counter (OTC) at home COVID-19 tests

Pharmacy Benefit	You will pay
COVID-19 Vaccine^{1,2}	$0 cost share
Anti-viral³: Paxlovid™ (nirmatrelvir/ritonavir) and Lagevrio™ (molnupiravir)	Tier 3 copay
OTC at-home COVID-19 tests	100% of cost

1. Covered at $0 cost share under the health reform law (Affordable Care Act).
2. Must be filled at a network pharmacy.
3. Must be prescribed by a health care professional and filled at a network pharmacy

What changes after May 11, 2023?

Vaccines

COVID-19 vaccines will be available at a network pharmacy at a $0 cost share.

Anti-viral treatments

COVID-19 oral treatments Paxlovid™ (nirmatrelvir/ritonavir) and Lagevrio™ (molnupiravir) will be available at a network pharmacy. You will need to pay a member cost share.

OTC at-home COVID 19 tests

Your plan will no longer cover at-home COVID-19 tests. You will pay 100% costs on or after May 12, 2023.

How do I get reimbursed for OTC at-home COVID-19 tests purchased at an online retailer or other stores?

If you purchased FDA-authorized COVID-19 tests at a retail store or online retailer between January 15, 2022 through May 11, 2023 you can be reimbursed for up to 8 tests per covered member per month. You will need copies of your purchase receipt(s). Complete one form per covered family member.

To receive the quickest possible reimbursement of up to $12 per test, submit an electronic claim form at <https://covidtest.optumrx.com/covid-test-reimbursement>.

You can also print a reimbursement form at <https://optumrx.com/content/dam/rxmember/landing-page/pdfs/covid-19-test-kit-reimbursement-form.pdf> and mail it to us.

Claim forms must be submitted within 365 days after the purchase date of OTC at-home COVID-19 tests between January 15, 2022 through May 11, 2023.
