CONDITIONS GOVERNING LOANS

1. The Lender agrees to lend the object(s) described on the obverse of this Loan Agreement (the "Agreement") to the Trustees of Hamilton College for the exhibition described on the obverse at Hamilton College. The term of this Agreement shall be for the dates of the exhibition as stated on the obverse.
2. The Lender may not withdraw the Loan during the term of this Agreement without good reason satisfactory to the College. The object shall remain in the custody of the College for the duration of the exhibition, as specified on the obverse, but may be withdrawn from the exhibition at any time by the College.
3. The College will exercise the same care with respect to the object as they do in safekeeping their own objects.
4. The Lender must maintain his/her own insurance. The Lender shall provide the College with a certificate of insurance, naming as additional insured the Trustees of Hamilton College, or waiving subrogation against the same. If the Lender fails to provide such a certificate, then this Agreement shall constitute a release from any liability whatsoever in connection with the object and this Agreement. The College can accept no responsibility for any error or deficiency in information furnished to the Lender's insurer or for any lapse in coverage.
5. At the end of the exhibition, the Lender is required to pick up the object or arrange for its return shipment. If the lender does not do so, the College shall have the absolute right to place the object in storage, to charge the Lender regular storage fees and insurance. If after one year from the termination date of this loan agreement the object has not been reclaimed, then, and in consideration for its storage, insurance and safeguarding during such period, the object shall be conclusively deemed to be an unrestricted gift to the College.
6. If the legal ownership of the object shall change during the term of the Agreement or while in the College's possession, whether by reason of death, sale, insolvency, gift or otherwise, the new owner may, prior to the return of the object, be required to establish his/her/its legal right to receive the object by proof satisfactory to the College. The new owner is responsible for pick up of the object or must arrange for the return shipment.
7. The Lender hereby warrants that he/she/it has the full right, power and authority to enter into this Agreement.
