We will mostly work on tap technique and maybe some tap tricks. Also, at some point in the semester, hopefully there will be an opportunity to learn some choreography and perform over a livestream for those who are interested. We would love new members with any level of experience with tap! Even if you have no tap experience, we can supply tap shoes and teach you the basics. :)

In 1780, Yoda, lord on higheth, fell down to a youthful Lin manual Miranda and urged him to start a form of performance art. "Is it high art?" he asked. "Yes," he heard, "comedy of improv you must. Do jokes on the spot, you will." And so, without much say in the matter, Yoda sent Lin off. That journey, Lin would embark upon, from Yodapez to stabbing us in the back and going to Wesleyan then making a performance art piece known as "Hamilton" that is record/groundbreaking while overshadowing us and denying every being in an improv comedy troupe, leads to here. You and us. Improv comedy. Want to meet us? Want to learn more about we do? Unfortunately, we will not be able to host auditions this semester however we would love to meet anyone who may be interested in joining in the future!
