

文化 culture

ACC Fulbright Field Studies Program

Summer Semester (7 weeks)

Immersion program for advanced students that combines field experience in rural China with advanced language courses.

Comparative study of US and China's contemporary society and education systems in Beijing.

Field trips to several regions of China with emphasis on rural areas to present at international conferences in China and to teach at day camps in rural schools.

Earn credits from Hamilton College.

Application Deadline:
February 20th

Fulbright-Hays GPA Fellowships

Full scholarships awarded to all accepted Field Studies participants including: Tuition, lodging, and a generous portion of your international travel costs.

(Applicants must be U.S. citizens, nationals, or permanent residents).

For detailed application requirements, please visit:
www.hamilton.edu/china

