Spring 2013
Regatta vs. Stetson/Tufts
The Hamilton College boathouse is located just 15 miles from campus, on N.Y., on the scenic Erie Canal. The canal offers 22 miles of sheltered water and ideal rowing conditions no matter what the weather may be. The athletes are provided bus transportation to practice on a daily basis during the season.

Hamilton crew has 24 Concept II ergometers, 28 canoes, and fitness equipment in the Charlean and Wayland Gym Training Room when it moves indoors for winter practice. Testing all these new array of weight training and fitness equipment in the Charles and Wayland Blood Fitness Center, which was completed in October of 2006.

The Hamilton College boathouse is located just 15 miles from campus, on N.Y., on the scenic Erie Canal. The canal offers 22 miles of sheltered water and ideal rowing conditions no matter what the weather may be. The athletes are provided bus transportation to practice on a daily basis during the season.

Hamilton crew has 24 Concept II ergometers, 28 canoes, and fitness equipment in the Charlean and Wayland Gym Training Room when it moves indoors for winter practice. Testing all these new array of weight training and fitness equipment in the Charles and Wayland Blood Fitness Center, which was completed in October of 2006.

The Hamilton College boathouse is located just 15 miles from campus, on N.Y., on the scenic Erie Canal. The canal offers 22 miles of sheltered water and ideal rowing conditions no matter what the weather may be. The athletes are provided bus transportation to practice on a daily basis during the season.

Hamilton crew has 24 Concept II ergometers, 28 canoes, and fitness equipment in the Charlean and Wayland Gym Training Room when it moves indoors for winter practice. Testing all these new array of weight training and fitness equipment in the Charles and Wayland Blood Fitness Center, which was completed in October of 2006.

The Hamilton College boathouse is located just 15 miles from campus, on N.Y., on the scenic Erie Canal. The canal offers 22 miles of sheltered water and ideal rowing conditions no matter what the weather may be. The athletes are provided bus transportation to practice on a daily basis during the season.

Hamilton crew has 24 Concept II ergometers, 28 canoes, and fitness equipment in the Charlean and Wayland Gym Training Room when it moves indoors for winter practice. Testing all these new array of weight training and fitness equipment in the Charles and Wayland Blood Fitness Center, which was completed in October of 2006.

The Hamilton College boathouse is located just 15 miles from campus, on N.Y., on the scenic Erie Canal. The canal offers 22 miles of sheltered water and ideal rowing conditions no matter what the weather may be. The athletes are provided bus transportation to practice on a daily basis during the season.

Hamilton crew has 24 Concept II ergometers, 28 canoes, and fitness equipment in the Charlean and Wayland Gym Training Room when it moves indoors for winter practice. Testing all these new array of weight training and fitness equipment in the Charles and Wayland Blood Fitness Center, which was completed in October of 2006.

The Hamilton College boathouse is located just 15 miles from campus, on N.Y., on the scenic Erie Canal. The canal offers 22 miles of sheltered water and ideal rowing conditions no matter what the weather may be. The athletes are provided bus transportation to practice on a daily basis during the season.

Hamilton crew has 24 Concept II ergometers, 28 canoes, and fitness equipment in the Charlean and Wayland Gym Training Room when it moves indoors for winter practice. Testing all these new array of weight training and fitness equipment in the Charles and Wayland Blood Fitness Center, which was completed in October of 2006.

The Hamilton College boathouse is located just 15 miles from campus, on N.Y., on the scenic Erie Canal. The canal offers 22 miles of sheltered water and ideal rowing conditions no matter what the weather may be. The athletes are provided bus transportation to practice on a daily basis during the season.

Hamilton crew has 24 Concept II ergometers, 28 canoes, and fitness equipment in the Charlean and Wayland Gym Training Room when it moves indoors for winter practice. Testing all these new array of weight training and fitness equipment in the Charles and Wayland Blood Fitness Center, which was completed in October of 2006.
Jordan Norberg is in her first season as an assistant coach for Hamilton College men’s and women’s crew. Norberg previously was the Masters women’s coach for East Bay Rowing Club. She has also served a number of coaching positions with the Jack London Aquatic Center and owns a Level 1 coaching certification from US Rowing.

Norberg competed in an eight with the Lake Merritt Rowing Club at the 2013 San Diego Crew Classic and finished second in the Masters A category. She was in a four with the same rowing club at the 2009 Head of the Charles Regatta.

In college Norberg rowed at the University of California, Berkeley, and was part of a team that won the 2006 NCAA Di- vision I Women’s Rowing Championship. She graduated from Cal-Berkeley with a degree in psychology.